Order—No. 2407, Home, dated 3rd July 1952.

The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 read with article 313 of the Constitution of India and of all other powers hereunto enabling, the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following amendment to the Special Rules for the Madras Judicial Ministerial Service (Section 28 of Part III-B of the Service Rules in Volume III of the Madras Services Manual, 1946) :—

AMENDMENT.

In the said Special Rules, after rule 19, the following rule shall be inserted, namely :—

19-A. Linguistic representation.—The State Government shall have power to declare that any proportion of posts in the service, class or category for which recruitment is made at the same time, shall be filled by candidates with an adequate knowledge of a particular language or languages and when such a declaration has been made the rule of reservation of appointments shall apply separately in regard to the proportion of posts in respect of which such a declaration has been made.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, a candidate with an adequate knowledge of a particular language shall mean a candidate who has acquired knowledge in that language in the High School courses. In the case of a candidate who has not undergone the High School course a certificate from a Gazetted Officer of the Judicial Department will be accepted as proof of the adequacy of knowledge of the language.
